"Woman, you have great faith." It takes faith to hear God's call in our lives. And His call takes us on unexpected paths of deeper trust and love. Is God calling you to life as sister, brother, deacon or priest? Contact Fr. Chad Johnson at (330) 744-8451 or cjohnson@youngstowndiocese.org.

As we continue in Year Two: The Parish Year of the National Eucharistic Revival, we are inviting all parishes to consider beginning (or in some cases, continuing) with Small Faith Sharing Groups centered on the Eucharist. The initial resource we are inviting parishes to consider is "Becoming Eucharistic People: The Hope and Promise of Parish Life" by Timothy O'Malley. To better assist the Small Faith Sharing Group, we will be holding a brief information and training session for leaders of this effort in our parishes. The session will present and discuss the material available for this resource, as well as a companion resource.

We will also discuss information about the upcoming Eucharistic Revival Congress in July of 2024. Bishop Bonnar has secured 125 tickets to be distributed free of charge to parish reps and individuals desiring to attend.

In this five-day event, one hundred and twenty-five parishioners and members of our diocese are invited to travel with us to Indianapolis, Indiana to join eighty-thousand Catholics in the Lucas Oil Stadium. There, we will have daily Mass, we will be hearing speakers (Montse Alvarado, Sister Miriam James Heidland, and Fr. Josh Johnson), meeting other Catholics, and have a city-wide Eucharistic Procession, including breakout sessions and festival programming.

Please join us for the Small Faith Sharing Group presentation

Where: Saint Michael Parish Hall in Canfield, 300 North Broad Street

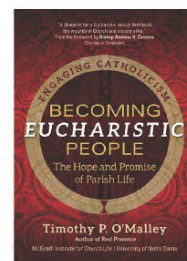

When: Monday, August 28th, 6:30 - 8:30 pm

Becoming Eucharistic People

In Becoming Eucharistic People, theologian Timothy P. O'Malley, author of Real Presence, outlines four essential dimensions of a Eucharistic culture in a parish—one that fosters reverence and unity among the faithful, includes every dimension of human life in the mystery of Christ's Body and Blood, and invites people back to parish life or to become Catholic for the first time.

"That All May Be One" is the Episcopal motto of the Most Reverend David J. Bonnar.

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable." -

Romans 11:29

God has a special mission in mind for each of us. He has given us the gifts we need to accomplish that mission. We are called to be good stewards by using those gifts to do the work that He has planned for each of us. If we deny our gifts or fail to use them as God calls us to use them, then some part of His work will be left undone. Each of us has a part in God's salvation plan.
