STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

“Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you.” LUKE 14:13 -14

We have a difficult time with the concept of giving, without expecting something in return. Even when we give to charity, we often want something in return – a raffle ticket, a dinner, or a chance to play golf. Yet, as Christian stewards, we need to remember that the true reward for our giving awaits us in heaven.

Father Bob's Corner .

Dear Friends,

Welcome Back! St. Paul School and many other local schools have opened their doors for the new school year. May God bless all our students, faculty and staff as they return. CCD religion classes will start later next month.

Preaching this weekend is Deacon Larry Pasko. He is a parishioner of St. Patrick Parish.

Sister Mary Ann McFadden recently announced that she will retire from St. Paul Salem and Centro San Pablo December 31st, at the end of the year. Sister will be in our prayers as she moves in the direction of retirement. Meanwhile, interviews are taking place for a part-time replacement for someone to direct Centro San Pablo.

Our reading from Sirach (Ecclesiasticus – sometimes confused with Ecclesiastes which is also known as Qoheleth) and the passage from the Gospel according to Luke, encourage us to acquire the virtue of humility. But the second reading, from the Letter to the Hebrews seems to instill the opposite. It contrasts the experience of the Israelites at Mount Sinai, and the giving of the covenant with Moses to the new covenant we have received through the blood of Jesus Christ. ....

...you have approached Mount Zion ... and countless angels, and the assembly of the firstborn, and God ..., and the spirits of the just ..., and Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and the sprinkled blood that speaks more eloquently than that of Abel. - Hebrews 12:22-24

However, verses 14 & 15 of that passage says, "Strive for peace with everyone, and for that holiness, without which no one will see the Lord. See to it that no one is deprived of the grace of God..." That tends to point us to acquire even more humility than those who received the covenant with Moses. Let's pray that we can understand the virtue of humility and grow in it.

Someone (I can't remember who) asked me about a woman who has frequently attended daily Mass and hasn't been seen in awhile. Well, I recently spoke with the "missing woman." She is well but has family obligations which keep her from attending daily Mass. She has been able to come to Adoration and Sunday Mass, though. That's a friendly cue for us to get to know one another better. Try to make it a point to meet someone new at Mass this month.

Enjoy the remaining days of August; September is just down the block.

Dear Jesus, make us merciful like the Father and help us enter through the narrow door. May we never take our faith for granted.

With love and prayers,

Father Bob Edwards

Diocesan & Local Events – August 28, 2016

MEDITATION

This is the opportune moment to change our lives. This is the time to allow our hearts to be touched, when faced with evil deeds! It is the time to listen to the cry of innocent people who are deprived of their property, their dignity, their feelings and even their very lives. God never tires of reaching out to us. He is always ready to listen.

It would not be out of place...to recall the relationship between justice and mercy. Mercy is not opposed to justice, but rather expresses God's way of reaching out to the sinners, offering them a new chance to look at themselves, convert and believe. God does not deny justice. God's justice is His mercy given to everyone as a grace that flows from the Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ.
