Dear Friends,

Ah, these unprecedented times! They certainly cause us to think. I am acquainted with the views of a lot of people during these times and I have searched my mind and heart for my views as well. Today's Gospel ideas have been among my thoughts, though I wasn't aware they were from this particular passage from Matthew's Gospel. Certainly, we must consider Jesus' words, "What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?"

What kind of discussion can we have with Jesus now about how our lives are going?

On September 1, the new Mass Intention Book for 2021 will be opened. We need to revise our policy for mass scheduling in 2021 due to the uncertainty of how the coronavirus will affect our future scheduling and the limited number of available Masses. Each family may request 1 (one) Saturday or Sunday Mass Intention and then 2 (two) week day Mass intentions. You have the added assurance that Easter, Mothers Day, Fathers Day, Christmas, and Pentecost will have Mass intentions for all our parishioners and your personal intentions are included in those. Please do your best to adjust your intentions or to word them to include others, such as, "For the living and deceased members of the So-and-so Family."

September 1, is also the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation. Be sure to pray for this world in which we live and all the inhabitants.

Thank you for wearing your masks in church. This helps us to suppress the transmission of the coronavirus via droplets and aerosols in the air around us. God bless us and help us to recognize our ability to curtail the spread of COVID-19.

Thank you, again, to those who have contributed to our collection for those with needs due to the pandemic. This ministry is developing under the patronage of St. Joseph. God bless you. Meanwhile, if any of you have suggestions of resources available for the local man who requires a liver transplant, please let me know your ideas.

September 20 is Catechetical Sunday. Mr. Pancurak, St. Paul School Principal, and Ms. Peggy Fitch, our Coordinator of Religious Education and I will be meeting to discuss the ways we will be applying all the diocesan and state guidelines as we resume this coming school year. Please pray for God's blessings on all students, staff, teachers and volunteers. St. Paul School is scheduled to resume over September 8 & 9. We have not yet set the date for resuming Sunday Religious Education.

Stay healthy and do all you can to keep our parish and community safe and healthy.

God bless you

With love, prayers, and gratitude,
Father Bob Edwards
