STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

“Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb...” ISAIAH 49:5

God have given each of us different gifts. In order for God’s plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do. And guess what? God has given each of us a different plan! So, stop comparing yourself to others. Don’t let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and generously share them with others.

Father Bob's Corner .

Dear Friends,

*...he is the one who will baptize
with the holy Spirit.*

- John 1:33

Happy Ordinary Time!

Ordinary Time (in which we count off the Sundays with the "ordinal" numbers, first, second, third, etc.) began on Monday. So, this Sunday is the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, is a time in which the gospels teach us about the life of Jesus. Today our gospel is from John, not from Matthew, as we would expect. The liturgical color for Ordinary Time is green.

John the Baptist testifies that Jesus is the "Son of God" (in John 1:34), after witnessing to the fact that he (John the Baptist) saw the Holy Spirit descend on Jesus. Last week we celebrated the final day of the Christmas Season with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. In today's gospel we reflect on baptism and focus on the Holy Spirit. Is the Holy Spirit with us? Do we pray to the Holy Spirit? The Holy Spirit acted in Jesus; do we allow the Holy Spirit to act in us? Can you think of any more ways in which we can interact with the Holy Spirit?

At St. Patrick Parish, now through February, music will be provided on alternate Sundays by Gina Love and Therese Rose. Our gratitude to God and these two musicians will be heard in our singing! Thank you, Gina & Therese. Thank you, Lord.

Father Ernesto Rodriguez is in Central America this weekend, visiting the Parish of Jesus Nazareno in the village of Chex Abajo, municipality (county) Aguacatan, state of Huehuetenango, Guatemala. He will convey our greetings and assure the people of our prayers. He will also offer our contributions from the rosaries that were sold after Masses at St. Paul last weekend. Thank you, Father Ernesto. The church of Jesus Nazareno is still being worked on, but we understand that it has been built far enough along for the people to gather there for Mass. God bless all the people of the parish there.

Wednesday, January 22 is the Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. Please pray on that day for the full restoration of legal rights to the unborn. Also offer penance for violation to the dignity of the human person by abortion. A "Life Issues Forum" is available online at <http://www.usccb.org/about/pro-life-activities/life-issues-forum/index.cfm> and through free subscription by e-mail. The site deals with a whole gamut of life issues from birth to natural death.

Saturday, January 25, is the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul. A Mass will be held at 9:00 am for all Parishioners. Coffee and donuts will be served after – location to be announced. Happy Feast Day!

Pray for Peace.
With love, prayers, and gratitude,

Father Bob Edwards

Catholic Schools
Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed.

Since 1974, National Catholic Schools Week is the annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States. It starts the last Sunday in January & runs all week, which in 2020 is January 26 - February 1. The theme for National Catholic Schools Week 2020 is "Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed." Schools typically observe the annual celebration week with Masses, open houses & other activities for students, families, parishioners & community members. Schools focus on the value Catholic education provides to young people & its contributions to our church, our communities & our nation.

Attention: You will notice that within your January envelope packet, there are 2 extra collections for Jan. 26th. Catholic schools week is Sunday, January 26th through Saturday, February 1st. Therefore, we will be having the second collection for Catholic Schools on January 26th.

The Church Overseas Combined Collection will be on February 2nd. Thank you for your understanding.

Help Needed:

St. Paul Church is looking for a few parishioners to help with the washing, purification & ironing of hand towels for the sanctuary laundry. Please call the parish office at 330-332-0336.

Attention: Centro San Pablo, our Hispanic Center, needs teachers for Monday mornings & Monday & Tuesday afternoons.

Teaching experience is helpful, but not necessary. Lessons are prepared for you & subject matter (teaching English language) is basic & simple.

If you can help for one and a half hours a week or have questions, please contact Sr. Mary Ann at 1-440-226-9609 or call the Parish Office at 330-332-0336. Thank you.

January is St. Paul's month to help replenish Harriet's Cupboard. The totes will still be at the doors the weeks of January 19th until Sunday, January 26th.

The list of items needed can be viewed at each door. Monetary donations are also accepted. Your help is greatly appreciated.

St. Patrick

The Rosary Prayer Group meets the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 pm at the school. The next meeting is Monday, January 20th. We encourage you to come and pray with us.

The Mission Society met on Monday January 6th for their monthly meeting. We started our meeting with a prayer & a reading by Debbie Vidumansky.

Debbie also provided our refreshment of a delicious lemon cake.

At the meeting we voted to send our quarterly fund of $300.00 dollars to Father Paulino Mondo in Africa for his continuous work with the poor, supplying clean water, education & health. We are also giving our quarterly fund of $ 100.00 dollars to Christian Concerns to help with the work they do for our community.

The Mission Society had their annual Christmas Party on December 9th. Thank You everyone who came & celebrated with us. It was a merry fun filled evening with gifts galore for the bingo game. There were many door prizes given out. We also had a gift exchange & the Christmas Tree was loaded with gifts. Our theme this year was an Old Fashion Pot Luck Christmas Dinner. As always the cooks & bakers never fail us. There was so much food you needed two plates to try everything & every dish was delicious. It was a wonderful evening enjoyed by everyone.

We are now selling tickets to our next 500 CLUB raffle. The first drawing for $50 was January 9th. The cost of the ticket is $25. By purchasing a ticket, you are eligible for a $50 "First Night" drawing, $25 drawings held weekly for the following 14 weeks, our famous "500 Club" dinner put on by John McIluff & Bum Baker at St. Patrick's Social Hall, and a chance to win $500 via a reverse raffle the night of the dinner in April. Call Jeff Kiliany (853-6099) for tickets or information. Or, you can stop by the K of C Room on a Thursday or Friday night.

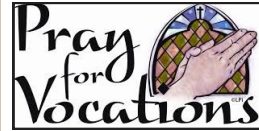

Diocesan & Local Events – January 19, 2020

Poverty Awareness Month

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has designated January as “Poverty Awareness Month.”

“WARM HEARTS FOR WARM HOMES”-

In the Diocese of Youngstown, 43% of households are unable to afford the basic necessities of life, including food, shelter, and heat during the cold winter months. In response to the needs of individuals and families in our community, Catholic Charities is sponsoring its annual Warm Hearts for Warm Homes campaign (formerly Keep the Kids Warm). This effort provides utility assistance to low-income individuals and families in our community. To make a donation to Warm Hearts for Warm Homes, visit Catholic Charities’ website at www.ccdoy.org, or mail your contribution to Catholic Charities, Warm Hearts for Warm Homes, 144 West Wood Street, Youngstown, Ohio 44503.

“Now the LORD has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb.” From the beginning, God has a plan for your life to help build the kingdom. Is that plan to serve as a priest, deacon or in religious life? If so, call Fr. Christopher Luoni at 330-744-8451 or email him at cluoni@youngstowndiocese.org.
