STEWARDSHP THOUGHT

*"...Behold, one is coming after me; I am not worthy to unfasten the sandals of his feet."
 -ACTS 13:25*

Stewardship is a lifestyle; it's not a program or a process. It's how we are called to live our lives twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week! It challenges us to live "God-centered" lives, not "self-centered" lives. Reflect on your daily activities, do you do them for the glory of God or for the glory of your own name?

Happy
Father's Day!

Salem & Leetonia, OH – June 17, 2018

Father Bob's Corner .

Dear Friends,

"It is good to give thanks to the Lord...."

- Psalm 92:2

The Lord has given us everything and the Psalmist encourages us to thank God. So the priest prays at the beginning of the Preface, "It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, Holy Father, almighty and eternal God." We could spend our whole lives thanking God and never cover everything. We have the greatest way of thanking God with, through and in Jesus Christ. We trust that the prayer of thanks we offer through Jesus is efficacious. A friend of mine used to say, "Thank God for God!" To which we may want to reply, "Amen."

During the past weeks I have been particularly grateful for people of faith. I have been greatly blessed in a number of conversations that I have had with our parishioners and with friends with whom I have spoken. Thank you, Lord, for the opportunities we have to share our faith with one another.

The Book of the Innocents is available for viewing and inscribing at St. Patrick Church today and next weekend. Please honor and pray for children who died, for any reason, over the years. Pray for their families and loved ones who still miss them. The book is circulating in Columbiana County.

We need Bingo Helpers. Bingo at St. Paul Parish helps to support our school and parish. We need volunteers who can work once a month or more to help keep this source of income viable. I am very grateful to those who faithfully sacrifice their time to help us with Bingo.

Next month our Improvement Envelope for St. Paul Parishioners will have a new look! The back of the envelope, which has been blank, will list our latest needed projects which are being attended to. Your generosity will enable these projects to be funded. Thank you.

You are in my thoughts and prayers while I am in Canada for a few days of R&R and a Divine Renovation conference. A priest in the Cleveland Diocese told me how he and his parish council were reviewing Divine Renovation and it motivated me to look into it. I am eager to see how this approach compares with the attitude of the authors and parish mentioned in Rebuilt. I expect to have a lot to share with all of you when I return.

We continue to pray for Bishop Murry and all those who are ill. God be with them in their illnesses. Keep them in your watchful care as we do our best to accompany them in their needs. God bless all of you.

With love and prayers,

Father Bob Edwards

Holy Innocents Grief Prayer

Father in heaven, you invite all who have lost a child – born or unborn – to place their burdens in your hands. Accept their sorrow as they grieve the loss of their child.

Sustain them as they are overwhelmed with grief's agony.

Help them to believe that their child lives now with you and give them the hope that someday they will be together in heaven.

Until then, please grant them the grace to see the light of eternity as they face the darkness of death.

Settle their souls and help them find peace.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

(Adapted from "Baby Loss Grief Prayer", by Elizabeth Ministry International)

The book of innocence is available in the back of St. Patrick Church to sign for anyone who has lost a child.
