Salem & Leetonia, OH – November 8, 2020

Dear Friends,

We're back to Ordinary Time after celebrating All Saints and All Souls. On Wednesday, Veterans Day, the Feast of Martin of Tours, we will have our annual Memorial Mass for all our Parishioners and loved ones who died during the past year at 6:30 pm.

During the month of November, we will continue to remember our departed loved ones in our prayers. May they rest in peace.

In this Sunday's Gospel we are reminded to be prepared for the coming of the "kingdom of heaven" in the person of the "bridegroom". This is "wisdom" that is echoed in the first reading. Our faith is lived out by always being prepared for the coming of the kingdom.

While we continue to deal with the virus, we may want to take time to explore our faith more deeply, to take more time to pray, and to reach out in charity to others. In that way we can be like the wise virgins who were prepared for the bridegroom's coming.

As I write this, I wonder how long we may have to wait for the results of our Presidential election. I am looking forward to voting Tuesday, but I don't plan to watch the returns all evening.

Thank you for your contributions to last week's second collection to help those suffering from financial difficulties and unemployment due to the coronavirus and to help the local man who is waiting for a liver transplant. At St. Paul this is done under the patronage of St. Joseph; at St. Patrick, we are doing this under the patronage of St. Barbara. Thank you for caring in this time of need. Funds are administered by myself and a few members of the parishes.

RCIA

More RCIA Updates: We have GOOD NEWS and NOT SO GOOD NEWS. The good news is that as of today we have a total of 7 CANDIDATES. Our newest candidate is Noah, a young man from St. Patrick's. the other news is that we will not meet in person (COVID-19) from now through November 24. candidates have materials to read. Once again, anyone interested in joining us, please call the Parish Office, 330-332-0336.

Thank you to the approximately 40 Parishioners who prayed the Rosary and litany of St. Michael for the safety of our Police, last Saturday, at the Salem Police Station in Salem. God bless them, the Leetonia Police, and the Columbiana County Sheriff and Deputies.

Congratulations to members of the Knights of Columbus on the beatification of Father Michael McGivney last Saturday. While the whole Church benefits from this declaration, the Knights are particularly proud of their founder.

USCCB Aaron Weldon and Mary McCloskey presents First Freedom Podcasts at soundcloud.com/usccbclips/. They have some interesting topics. They also mention a USCCB YouTube series Beauty Heals. "The recent vandalism of churches and their sacred art gives us the opportunity to bear witness to our hope in the Lord whose beauty is revealed on the Cross. Beauty Heals invites us to learn about works of devotional art significant to local churches and how they inspire Catholics to live beautifully." The series currently has 5 videos: <https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLpTzvCOJa7DB18Zko4BKhrZl3AutJsrw8>.

Let's remember each other in our prayers, particularly praying for vocations and for perseverance in the faith. God bless you.

With love, prayers, and gratitude,

Father Bob Edwards
