STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:

*“So the last will be first and the first last”
 - MATTHEW 20:16*

You’ve heard the saying “it’s not where you start, but how you finish.” This certainly applies to this Bible passage. We have a responsibility not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. We are called to generously share our gifts with others, not hoard them for our own use. Our gratitude and generosity helps us live “God-centered” lives and not “self-centered” lives.

Salem & Leetonia, OH – September 24, 2017

Father Bob's Corner .

Dear Friends,

For to me life is Christ and death is gain. Philippians 1:21

We ended our series of Second Readings from St. Paul's letter to the Romans last week. For three weeks we will have selections from his letter to the Philippians. There's something startlingly simple in the words, "For to me life is Christ." Life is Christ! Can we say it often enough to mean it from within?

If we can, then can we ever, in this life, really come to think that death is gain? St. Paul's words might just be the example we need to convince us that, as Isaiah indicates, God's ways and thoughts are above ours!

This Sunday is Eighth Annual Diocesan Faith and Family Festival at Walsh University's Hoover Park from Noon to 6:00 pm. Hoover Park is located at 1875 E Maple Street in North Canton, Ohio. CCD was cancelled this Sunday to provide families with more time to attend. I hope many of you will check it out.

Fall arrived Thursday afternoon. The weather was beautiful at the beginning of the week. The leaves, in beautiful colors are lingering on the branches to which they were attached since Spring. The snowbirds already are saying their goodbyes as their scheduled departures arrive. I suspect that the change of seasons that we experience in our weather helps us to adapt better to change in life overall. What do you think?

We continue to adjust to our new Sunday Mass Schedule. We're into our third week and we seem to be adapting fairly well. Keep up the good work.

I will be away from Monday through Friday. Father Ernesto has been gracious to offer to celebrate Masses on Tuesday and Wednesday morning. Liturgy of the Word with Holy Communion will be celebrated on Thursday and Friday mornings. Call the parish office if you have other needs which require a priest.

Make it a great week.

With love and prayers,

Father Bob Edwards
