December 1, 2024 - First Sunday of Advent

CELEBRATE ADVENT BEFORE YOU CELEBRATE CHRISTMAS

Each year retailers and malls force us to begin the Christmas Season earlier and earlier. Decorations and sales begin appearing shortly after the kids return to school in September!!! As Catholic Christians, it is imperative that we remember that Christmas is a Religious holiday, not a marketing ploy.

Our Church blessedly gives us an entire religious season to celebrate and prepare ourselves spiritually before we launch headlong into celebrating Christmas. That season is Advent. This year, Advent begins on Sunday, December 1, and ends on Tuesday, December 24. This is our season of preparation. This is the season in which we pray and reflect on what the coming of the Christ meant to the people of the world 2024 years ago, and what his coming means for each of us today. The Scriptures, especially from the Old Testament, tell us of the "long awaited Savior," the one who would restore the Kingship of David, and who would be the "light of the Gentiles and the glory of the people Israel."

Advent reminds us that for generations people awaited the coming of the Christ. Advent reminds us of all the preparations the Holy Family had to endure and they prepared to be the parents of the Christ. Advent reminds us that Christ will come again in glory and that we need to prepare for his coming every day of our lives. Christ comes to us at every Mass we celebrate and his coming calls us to action and to conversion.

So this year, as much time as we must spend decorating, baking, shopping and traveling, spend an equal amount of time in prayer and reflection with our families (both at home and at Church) on what Christmas really means. When December 25 arrives, may we be prepared to BEGIN our celebration of Christmas. May we be prepared to welcome Christ our Savior, not just as a little baby from 2024 years ago, but as our Savior today and as the answer to all our hopes and prayers.

Advent

Human beings cannot live without hope. Unlike the animals, we are blessed – or cursed – with the ability to think about the future and to fear our actions to shaping it. So essential is this to human life that human beings cannot live without hope, without something to live for, without something to look forward to. To be without hope, to have nothing to live for, is to surrender to death in despair. But we can find all sorts of things to live for and we can hope for almost anything: for some measure of success or security or for the realization of some more or less modest ambition; for our children, that they might be saved from our mistakes and sufferings and find a better life than we have known; for a better world, throwing ourselves into politics or medicine or technology so that future generations might be better off. Not all these forms of hope are selfish; indeed, they have given dignity and purpose to the lives of countless generations.

But one of the reasons why we read the Old Testament during Advent is to learn what to hope for. The people of the Old Testament had the courage to hope for big things: that the desert would be turned into fertile land; that their scattered and divided people would eventually be gathered again; that the blind would see, the deaf hear, the lame walk; that not only their own people, but all the peoples of the earth, would be united in the blessings of everlasting peace. Clearly, their hopes were no different from ours or from any human being's: lasting peace, tranquil lives, sufficiency of food, an end to suffering pain and misery.

Thus we hope for the same things as the Old Testament people, for their hopes are not yet realized. But we differ from them in two ways. First, the coming of Jesus in history, as a partial fulfillment of God's promises, immeasurably confirms and strengthens our hope. Secondly, we differ from the Old Testament people because Jesus has revealed to us that God is not afar off, but is already in our midst. Hence the importance in the Advent liturgy of John the Baptist and of Mary: because they recognized the new situation, they serve as models for the Church in discerning the presence of our Savior in the world.

Jubilee Year 2025 – "Pilgrims of Hope"

As the Universal Church looks toward the Jubilee Year 2025 (the 2,025th anniversary of the Incarnation of our Lord), the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops is thrilled to support the Holy Father in this "event of great spiritual, ecclesial, and social significance in the life of the Church."

Pope Francis stated in his February 2022 letter announcing the Jubilee 2025: "We must fan the flame of hope that has been given us and help everyone to gain new strength and certainty by looking to the future with an open spirit, a trusting heart and far-sighted vision. The forthcoming Jubilee can contribute greatly to restoring a climate of hope and trust as a prelude to the renewal and rebirth that we so urgently desire..."

The local celebration opening the Jubilee Year in the Diocese of Youngstown will take place on the Sunday after Christmas, on Sunday, December 29, 2024 at 4:00pm at Saint Columba Cathedral. All the faithful are encouraged to attend and all clergy are invited to concelebrate.

Find more information on the 2025 Jubilee Year can be found at uscbb.org/committees/jubilee-2025

COMMUNAL RECONCILIATION SERVICE

Celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation (i.e. "going to Confession"), is a wonderful way of receiving God's Mercy and preparing for Christmas. An Advent Reconciliation Service (with several additional priests) will be held at St. Paul Parish on Sunday, December 15, at 2:00pm.

MASS SCHEDULES FOR JANUARY 1, 2025

January 1 is a multiple celebration. Besides being the day that the world marks the beginning of a new year, it is the day the Church celebrates the Octave (the eighth day) of the Christmas Season, plus the day of celebration in honor of Mary, the Mother of God, and also the Day of Prayer for World Peace. For all these reasons, January 1, is a Holy Day of Obligation for all Catholics.

Tuesday, December 31 — New Year's Eve

St. Paul — 4:30pm

Wednesday, January 1 — New Year's Day

St. Paul — 9:00am and 5:00pm (Spanish)

1st Sunday of Advent

"But when these signs begin to happen,
stand erect and raise your heads
because your redemption is at hand."

-Luke 21:28

We celebrate Advent each year in preparation for the birth of Jesus, His first coming, as we await His second coming.

What will you do differently this Advent season to grow in friendship and love with Jesus?

How will you inspire others to do the same?
Start by sharing your God story with others,
especially those that are closest to you.
Invite and accompany them on their faith journey this Advent.

If you are interested in bringing up the gifts in the offertory procession, see the ushers before Mass
