January 5, 2025 - Epiphany of The Lord

We Three Kings of Orient Are: Blessing the Home at Epiphany

by Catherine Fournier

The Christmas season ends with Epiphany, the threefold “discovery” and manifestation of the divinity of Jesus Christ; by the three Magi who came to worship Jesus in the manger in Bethlehem, during His baptism in the river Jordan by his cousin John, when the Holy Spirit in the form of a dove descended from Heaven and a voice proclaimed him the Son of God, and when He performed his first miracle by changing water into wine during the wedding feast at Cana.

Properly speaking, Epiphany is the first Sunday after January 1st. It can be celebrated on January 6th as well, whatever day of the week that falls on. Follow whatever suits your family schedule. Celebrate Epiphany more than once if you want, using one of our suggestions each time.

There are many ways to celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany in the domestic church. The three Wise Men (which in our home are small cloth figures made of bright cloth embellished with gold braid, ribbon and shiny buttons) who have been slowly moving through the dining room toward the crèche on the living room bookcase, finally reach the manger on this night, and bow before the Christ Child.

The Crèche is surrounded by candles and the tiny cloth figure of the Baby Jesus is ‘enthroned,’ with the manger draped with a scrap of purple cloth and a small crown placed on his head.

“Behold, the Lord, the Ruler is come, the Kingdom is in His Hand, and power and dominion.”

Then the Three Kings bless our home. Dressed as the Kings, (in capes and other bright ‘regal’ costumes with homemade crowns on our heads), we process through the house, singing “We Three Kings of Orient Are.”

Dad leads the way with a stick of chalk and a small bottle of holy water. At each doorway leading to the outside, we stop and he marks the lintel with: 20+C+M+B+25. He then sprinkles the doorway with holy water and says this prayer: “Oh Lord, grant that the names of your saints Caspar, Melchior and Balthazar, may, through their merits and petitions, bless our home and bring physical health and spiritual protection for all who enter here. Amen.”

When we have blessed our home, we begin to take down the Christmas decorations, and pack them away for another year. But with the blessing of our home, we have not put away the message and promise of Christmas to be forgotten until December of next year, we have ensured that it will follow us throughout the rest of the liturgical year celebrated in our domestic church.

On the Epiphany it is traditional to ask God’s blessing on our homes. The current year and the initials of the legendary names of the Magi (Casper, Melchior and Balthazar) are marked above the main doorway.

(As on the reverse of this page.

Cut on the dotted line)

While placing this blessing above the doorway of your home, say:

*“May all who come to our home this year rejoice to find Christ living among us and may we seek and serve Christ in everyone we meet.”
Amen.*

The Epiphany of the Lord

"...They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh."

♦ Matthew 2:11

What gifts do you give to the Lord?

Pope St. Gregory said that these three gifts represent what we should give God every day.

Gold – we should reflect Christ's wisdom in all our relationships.

Frankincense – represents our daily prayer and adoration to God.

Myrrh – is a symbol of our daily sacrifices that we unite with Jesus for the sake of others.

A huge 'THANK YOU' to our generous parishioners who contributed to the LCBA bake sale on December 14th and 15th! Your delicious baked goods made this a very successful fundraiser. With part of the proceeds from the sale, LCBA Branch 654 is purchasing new 'feet' for the kneelers @ St. Paul, so that we may enjoy a more peaceful worship service! Again - THANK YOU!

If you are interested in bringing up the gifts in the offertory procession, see the ushers before Mass
