It's understandable that the apostles were frightened after Jesus' crucifixion. An angry mob had just demanded His execution. As His followers, could they not be next? But Jesus came to comfort them amid their fear, doubts, and suffering. The locked door they hid behind could not keep Jesus from tending to their needs. Twice He says, "Peace be with you." Then He breathes the life-giving breath of the Holy Spirit on them, saying, "Receive the Holy Spirit." In their need, Christ not only brings the comfort of His presence, but He also brings the strength of the Holy Spirit. His disciples are transformed from feeling like abandoned followers, quaking behind locked doors, to empowered preachers to whom Jesus says, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Locked doors are no match for Jesus. What are our locked doors? Fear of intimacy with God, and what that intimacy will require of us? An overscheduled life, full of much activity but not much meaning? Spiritual boredom or the lack of energy or desire to go deep with God? No matter what our "locked doors" are, Jesus can walk right through them, bringing His peace and strength to sustain us.

Jesus gave us His Church so that we can feel His presence. Let us build up this wonderful gift by supporting the Annual Diocesan Appeal, which brings the light of Christ to our brothers and sisters.

St. Paul choir is looking for singers of all ages to join us. We meet on Saturdays, 3:30-4:20pm in the practice room behind the sanctuary.

Even if you can't attend weekly, come when you are able. Then sing with us at the 4:30pm Mass. For more info, call or text John at 330-277-8772.

MASS TIME SURVEY

The Liturgy Committees and the Pastoral Councils of our parishes are looking for your input to help Fr. Ruggieri make a decision on changes to our weekend and weekday Mass schedules.

While no changes are currently planned (other than switching to our Summer Mass schedule Memorial Day weekend), we are looking at ways to get more people coming for Mass each week.

In order for your survey to be counted, you must be a registered member of either parish. Please fill out the information below and offer your opinion on the Mass schedules.

Name: _____
