ANOINTING OF THE SICK

On Monday, May 19, at 6:00pm, at St. Paul Parish, there will be a communal celebration of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Come and share in the healing work of Christ and the Church through anointing with oil. As the Letter of James says, "Are there people among you who are sick? They should summon the priests of the Church, and the priests should pray over the sick and anoint them with oil in the name of the Lord, and the prayer of faith will save the sick persons and the Lord will raise them up. If they have committed any sins, they will be forgiven." If you know someone who would like to receive this Sacrament, but cannot attend on the 19th, please call the parish to arrange for a priest to visit them.

BAKERS, Get Ready!

LCBA is sponsoring a bake sale in conjunction with our Trunk to Treasure Sale on June 21st! We are again asking for your help. Cakes, pies, cookies, candy, etc. are all welcome and needed. Donations from our parishioners have made past sales a huge success. We thank everyone who has participated! Donations can be brought to the rectory meeting room on Friday, June 20th from 10am until 2pm for packing and pricing by our members. All proceeds go to church, school, and community needs.

Vendors invited!

LCBA Trunk to Treasure Sale is planned for Saturday, June 21, 9 AM to 2 PM in the St. Paul Parish parking lot. Sellers can purchase a spot for $20 each. For more information Or registration call or text: Karen at 440-227-3366 Turn your trash into someone's treasure.

If you are interested in bringing up the gifts in the offertory procession, see the ushers before Mass

ATTENTION, GRADUATING SENIORS

During the 8:00 AM and 10:00 AM Masses on Sunday, May 25, we will be honoring the graduating high school seniors at their home parish. Please call the parish office at 330-332-0336 by May 19 to RSVP.

Anointing of the Sick - Joined to Christ, Witnesses of Hope and Healing

Anointing of the Sick is the sacrament that is received by those who are ill or suffering. By the sacred anointing and the prayer of the priest, the whole Church commends those who are sick to Christ. The sick person receives the Holy Spirit's gifts of strength, faith, peace, and courage, and his or her suffering is united with the suffering of Christ for the building up of the Church (Catechism of the Catholic Church [CCC], nos. 1520-23). Through the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, the Church carries out Jesus' mission of compassion and healing for the sick. The one who is ill can also be a minister to others. By uniting their suffering to Christ, those who are sick can be signs of faith and witnesses of Christ's Resurrection to the entire community (St. John Paul II, Christifideles Laici [The Vocation and the Mission of the Lay Faithful in the Church and in the World], no. 54).

A Communal Celebration The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is both "a liturgical and a communal celebration." In the family home, hospital, or church, members of the Body of Christ gather for the sacramental rite led by a priest. The Penitential Rite followed by the Liturgy of the Word and sacramental anointing of the sick can inspire and comfort both those who are ill and their family and friends who are gathered (CCC, nos. 1517-18). Many parishes have communal celebrations at which many persons receive the sacrament. These sacramental celebrations are a "source of strength amid pain and weakness, hope amid despair" and a "joyful encounter" for the entire community (Christifideles Laici, no. 54).

Connection to the Communion of Saints Anointing with sacred oil is a sign of blessing by the Holy Spirit of the one who is sick. Oil of the Sick, which receives a different blessing from the Chrism oil used during Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Orders, recalls the community's sharing of the Holy Spirit and the sick person's connection to the entire Body of Christ and Communion of Saints.

Imitation of Christ's Compassion In the Gospels, Christ's great compassion toward the sick is expressed in the miraculous healings he performs, which heal the entire person, both body and soul. Parables such as the Good Samaritan (Lk 10:29-37) and the Judgment of the Nations (Mt 25:31-46) urge Christ's followers to share his ministry of compassion and healing and to imitate his "preferential love for the sick" and all who suffer (CCC, nos. 1503, 1506; Pope Benedict XVI, Sacramentum Caritatis [Sacrament of Charity], no. 22; see also Pope Francis, Fratelli Tutti, chapter 2).

Solidarity with All Who Suffer We care for the sick because we see them as children of God and part of our human family. When one part of the Body of Christ suffers, we all suffer (1 Cor 12:26). The suffering of one impacts everyone. Thus, we are called to solidarity, which is responsibility on the part of everyone with regard to everyone (St. John Paul II, Sollicitudo Rei Socialis [On Social Concern], no. 38; Pope Benedict XVI, Caritas in Veritate [Charity in Truth], no. 38). By our compassion, we remind those who are sick that "[the Church] shares your suffering. She takes it to the Lord, who in turn associates you with his redeeming Passion" (Synod of Bishops, Per Concilii Semitas ad Populum Dei Nuntius, no. 12). We are called to comfort, pray for and with, and be in solidarity with all who are sick or suffering. Caring for those who suffer is not a burden, but a gift. Those who care for the sick do holy and important work; they walk with Christ's suffering people and in doing so, serve Christ himself (Mt 25:31-46). Those who minister to the sick and who work to secure decent health care for all become "the living sign of Jesus Christ and his Church in showing love towards the sick and suffering" (Christifideles Laici, no. 53).

Union with Christ's Passion While it is possible that the sacrament could bring physical healing, Anointing of the Sick is primarily about the healing of hope and of the spirit. Above all, the sacrament allows the person who is ill to unite more closely to Christ's Passion. This gives suffering a new meaning: a participation in the saving work of Jesus. This is a powerful witness that is for the good of the whole Church (CCC, nos. 1521-22).

Beacons of Hope St. John Paul II wrote, "Even the sick are sent forth as laborers into the Lord's vineyard" (Christifideles Laici, no. 53). As the sick unite their sufferings to those of Christ, they become bearers of the joy of the Holy Spirit in the midst of affliction and witnesses of Christ's Resurrection. Anointing of the Sick testifies to the fact that all are called to participate in the redemption of the world (Sacramentum Caritatis, no. 22). We all have a role in sanctifying and building up the Church, whatever our physical condition. As the Synod of Bishops told an audience of sick and suffering persons, "We need you to teach the whole world what love is" (Per Concilii Semitas ad Populum Dei Nuntius, no. 12).

A Witness to Dignity The sacrament reminds us that each person is made in the image of God and has dignity that remains unchanged, whatever the body suffers. The ministry of those who are sick is a powerful witness to the fact that human dignity is intrinsic and does not increase or decrease based on a person's physical state or abilities. This is why the Church works to protect the life and dignity of the person at every stage of life—the embryo, the person suffering from illness, the family in poverty, and the person nearing death—and why she works to secure access to decent health care for all.

“Love” is often associated with sentimentality, all roses and poetry, full hearts and butterflies in the stomach. To love, truly and deeply, is hard, though. It’s sacrificial, not superficial. It’s service, work, self-denial. As Paul says in 1 Corinthians 13:5, love “does not seek its own interests.” It doesn’t keep score: You did this for me, so I do this for you. It isn’t contingent on how much the other person loves us. After all, Jesus loved Judas despite the latter’s betrayal.

This is how Jesus loves us – freely, completely, no strings attached. And this is how we are called to love others in His name. We are imperfect. So, we won’t be able to love like this. But we can strive to love as Christ does, and in the striving, we can come close some of the time.

There are many ways we can “have love for one another.” When we care for a parent whom illness has reduced to a child-like state. When we pray for those who have injured us in some way. When we forgive our spouses their shortcomings and recommit to our wedding vows even in our disappointment. And by bringing God’s love to those we may never meet through support of the Annual Diocesan Appeal.

St. Paul choir is looking for singers of all ages to join us. We meet on Saturdays, 3:30-4:20pm in the practice room behind the sanctuary.

Even if you can’t attend weekly, come when you are able. Then sing with us at the 4:30pm Mass. For more info, call or text John at 330-277-8772.

5th Sunday of Easter

"I give you a new commandment:
love one another.

As I have loved you, so you also should love one another."

-John 13:34

"As I have loved you," this is the hard part – Jesus's love is unconditional; our love usually comes with strings attached. It is easy to love someone when they love you back. But it takes mercy and compassion to love someone when you feel unappreciated, feel used or feel like your opinion doesn't matter. It takes courage and the grace of God to "love my neighbor" when they may be someone you don't like, someone you don't know, or someone that doesn't look like you.
