October 26, 2025 Week 4: Continuing the Mission Mission Does Not End with October

As we conclude World Mission Month, we remember that the Church's missionary work is ongoing. Our baptismal call to share the Gospel continues beyond this season, inviting us to remain engaged—through prayer, storytelling, and generous action.

The first World Mission Sunday was celebrated nearly a century ago in 1926. The need today remains urgent: missionaries still serve in remote villages, conflict zones, refugee camps, and urban slums. They bring more than aid—they bring Jesus Christ.

As St. Paul VI reminded us 50 years ago in his historic exhortation Evangelii Nuntiandi: "The Church exists in order to evangelize" (14). We are grateful for your support this October—and we invite you to continue the journey. Subscribe to Mission Magazine, join us in praying the World Mission Rosary year-round, and stay connected to the Pope's missions through www.pontificalmissions.org.

Hope does not disappoint—and the world still needs hope.

ALL SOULS' DAY

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

All Souls' Day (November 2) is the day in the Church when we honor and Commemorate the Souls of All the Faithful Departed. This year, All Souls' Day lands on Sunday and will be celebrated at all the Masses in our parishes Saturday and Sunday.

In addition to these weekend Masses, we will also celebrate this Solemn day with a special Mass of Remembrance at St. Paul Church on Monday, November 3, at 6:00 p.m. All those who have lost a loved one are invited to attend, and all those who have died in our parishes this past year (since last year's All Souls' Day) will be remembered in a special way during this Mass.

A reception will follow the Mass in the Rectory Meeting Room.

Invitations have been sent to all St. Paul families who lost a loved one through death in the last year. Please contact the Parish Office at 330-332-0336 to RSVP or if you did not receive an invitation and plan to attend. This Mass is open to everyone regardless of your parish membership.

Additionally, the intentions written and submitted on your All Souls' envelope offerings will be included in the intentions at all the Masses in our parishes throughout the month of November.

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

-Luke 18:14

Pride and ego are the root causes of most of our sins.

Thinking your time is so valuable or your talent is better than anyone else or your money gives you status is another way of making those things "gods" before God.

Remember, all that we have and all that we are is a gift from God.

We should be humbled by God's incredible generosity and
be grateful for all we have been given.
Ultimately, gratitude leads us to humility.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time - October 26, 2025

"For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." (Luke 18:14)
Humility is essential in all vocations, whether it be sacramental marriage, priesthood, or consecrated life. What are some ways you can work on becoming humbler in your life? Have you humbled yourself to ask God what His plan is for you? Talk to your priest or reach out to the Diocese of Youngstown Office of Church Vocations at vocations@youngstowndiocese.org.
